6. What does the “new heavenly Jerusalem” look like (Rev 21:10-23)? Does it have dimensions and building material? Where will its illumination come from (Rev 21:23)? Will there be any need for fossil fuels or nuclear power?

7. Notice that the material the city is built out of is multicolored but all translucent so that light can shine through (Rev 21:18-21). Do you think this city is built to perfectly reflect and refract the brilliance of the glory of God? Will there be any need for the sun or the moon (v 23)? Will there be any night (v 25)?

8. Where will the “water of life” come from (Rev 22:1)? Where did we last see the “tree of life” that John saw in Rev 22:2 (Genesis 3:22)?

9. What will the resurrected saints (called bond-servants) do in heaven (Rev 22:3-5)? What did Jesus tell His disciples about serving, reigning and judging (Matt 19:28, 1 Cor 6:2, Rev 3:21, 2 Timothy 2:12, Romans 8:17)?

10. To whom does He promise a blessing to in Rev 22:7? How should we “heed the words of this prophecy”? Does verse 10 sound like this message should be spread? What request did John add to Jesus’ words in 22:20? John was ready, what about you?
